with the Right Reverend Jennifer Baskerville Burrows,

11th Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Indianapolis as retreat leader

Bishop Jennifer is from New York, ordained by the Diocese of Central New York, and a graduate of Smith college, Cornell University and the Church Divinity School of the Pacific. She has expertise in historic preservation and a passion for issues including gun violence, social justice, and racial and class reconciliation. She also maintains a strong focus in guiding others through the practice of spiritual direction. Bishop Jennifer was ordained and consecrated as Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Indianapolis on April 29, 2017. She lives in Indianapolis with her husband Harrison and their 6-year-old son, Timothy.

"The Episcopal Church is where I found my relationship with Jesus some 30 years ago," she said. "It teaches me that the world is filled with incredible beauty and unspeakable pain and that God is deeply in the midst of it all loving us fiercely. So each day, nourished by the sacraments and stories of our faith, the beauty of our liturgical tradition, the wide embrace of this Christian community, I learn over and over again how to live without fear."
